Date and Time: Wednesday, January 15 7:00 pm

Address: Virtual

Join the Beef Cattle Research Council for their 2025 Winter Webinar Series, covering topics focused on improving their health and biosecurity of Canadian beef herds based on practical, science-based information for Canadian beef producers and veterinary teams.

Foot and Mouth Disease – Don't Be a Richard
January 15, 2025, 7:00 PM MT

Speakers: Karin Schmid, Alberta Beef Producers, and Dr. Leigh Rosengren, Rosengren Epidemiology Consulting

Foot and Mouth Disease (FMD) is a biosecurity concern with major economic impacts for Canadian beef production. What is the risk to producers and farmers in Canada, and what can they do to minimize this risk? This webinar is geared towards producers to discuss the who, what, where and why of FMD and how it can directly impact beef cattle operations.

Connecting Women in Agriculture

Date and Time: Tuesday, January 21 12:00 pm - 1:00 pm

Address: Virtual

Farm Credit Canada (FCC) is hosting a series of virtual events celebrating women in agriculture. Topics include thriving in adversity, farm finances, HR, and farm transitions. The series will be hosted by Katelyn Duban of the Rural Woman podcast.

On Tuesday, January 21, 2025, join Annessa Good-Hassard for an event titled 'Proactive Transition Planning: Empowering Family, Business, and Legacy'.

Annessa Good-Hassard knows firsthand the complexities and family dynamics around farm transition. Raised on her family's mixed farm, she and her husband recently became the successors of their operation. She shares a motto with clients: "Succession is the transfer of a business. Estate planning is the transfer of assets pre- and post-death. Transition combines both – it's proactive rather than reactive."

In this session, she'll combine her professional and personal expertise to help you think holistically about transition planning to focus on your family's health, business and legacy.
